General Match Information:

Match will consist of approximately 14-18 Stages with 225-300 rounds required. (Stage Design Team is working on stage selection and range layout at this time. Updated and more specific information will be released in the near future.)

Match will utilize a dedicated staff of officials which will include a Chief Range Officer and two Range Officers per bay.

Competitors will be scheduled to shoot 2 half days and may be required to work one half day to supplement the dedicated match staff. Working is a condition of entry.

Work and squad lists will be posted at the range, stages, and the match hotel.

Food and beverages will be available every day on the range.

Arbitration Forms will be available at the range from any CRO or the Range Master. The arbitration fee is $100.00 CDN.

Stage walk-throughs will begin on time regardless if the entire squad is present. Squads will be allowed to shoot early if the entire squad is present and the officials agree.

Safety Areas will be available on all bays. Come to the stage with a holstered firearm. No bagging and un-bagging will be done on the line.

Brass picking is only permitted when the entire squad is finished, and only if the next squad is not at the stage.

Stage results will be posted daily at the range. Match and final stage results will be posted at the range and the host hotel.
